

Contributed Photo

Reprinted form Erie Times News, November16, 2008

Golf tournament aids Children's Charities

The 10th anniversary golf tournament for the Rich Jensen, Jeff Landis Jr. Memorial Open for Children's Charities in Erie County took place at Overlake Golf Course in Girard. More than $13,000 was distributed to Hunt of a Lifetime, Make-a-Wish Foundation of Greater Pennsylvania and Southern West Virginia, Neighborhood Art House, Royal Kids Family Kamp, Safe Harbor Behavioral Health (pet therapy-program), Therapeutic Riding of Erie County and Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week. In front row are, from left, Jon Evans, of Safe Harbor Behavior Health; Karen Malone, of Therapeutic Riding of Erie County; and Jon Trombetta, representing Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week. In back row are, from left, Tina Pattison, of Hunt for a lifetime; Jan Stork, of Make-a-Wish; Linda Landis; Jeff Landis, Sr.; Barb Jensen; Dave Sawtelle; Sister Anne Wambach, of Neighborhood Art House; John Jensen; and Dan Young, of Royal Family Kids' Camp of Erie.